SPECIAL EXPERT

In revealing defects in eyes. If your eyes trouble you or your glasses don't suit you, consult me, I may be able to do for you what medicine cannot do.

The majority of people have defective sight. A great number of people suffer from continuous pains in the head and eyes, from which they get no relief by taking drugs or medicine. In a majority of cases one or both eyes fail to perform their proper function of seeing. Every person suffering that way should have their eyes examined and scientifically tested.

More nervous diseases are cured by scientific and properly fitted glasses than by drugs.

CORRECTLY FITTED GLASSES ARE A PERMANENT PLEASURE.

Grand Fall Opening Week October 1 to 6.

The merchants of 63rd St. between Wentworth Ave. and Wallace St. have decided to make the first week in October the occasion of their Fall Opening and will make it an unusually attractive one, with beautiful displays in all lines of merchandise that will attract the attention of buyers of seasonable goods.

Our next issue of the Times will contain the advertisements of those merchants who will bid especially for your trade on this occasion, and we can safely recommend this as a reliable sale and not an unloading of shelf-worn and unseasonable goods.

On account of an unusual rush of local news matter, this week our serial story will be omitted.

Mrs. W. C. Pearce of 6754 Normal Blvd. has returned from a pleasant summer's outing spent at William's Bay, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Guthridge, 350 65th St., announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Nellie, to Mr. Frederick A. Fellows on Saturday, July 14, at Oakland, Cal. It was a quiet "at home" affair, only a few friends and relatives attending. Miss Nellie, or rather, Mrs. Fellows, will no doubt surprise many of her old Englewood friends, who will be glad to send congratulations.

The farewell tendered Englewood soldier boys at the assembly hall of the Lewis Champlin school Friday night was well attended and was a patriotic event. The prize-winning drill team of the Englewood High School Cadets was present and also the quartette, and a neat sketch of the different allied countries was given. Former Governor Deneen, John R. Burgess, Professor Armstrong and Hon. J. Homer Lyle made appropriate addresses.

Englewood post office boys certainly have proved that they are patriotic in word and deed. Generously responding to the Red Cross campaign and Liberty bond issues, a number are now considering their loyalty to Uncle Sam. Mr. William Wiehmer left on Wednesday morning for Rockford; Mr. Harry Haffner has joined the Naval Reserves and is ready to jump at a call; Mr. L. Hammar wants to go, but Uncle Sam thinks the young man's 123 pounds a bit too risky at present and advises the consumption of another barrel of home-made bread. Mr. T. Dolan, who returned on time from a vacation, says he guesses he still can cheer for our embryo soldiers.

About Our Soldier Boys' Farewell.

Messrs. Homer Tinsman, Charles L. Borg and Doctor Cushing have received a letter from the first batch of men sent from district 74 to Rockford on the 8th. They report safe arrival and their assignment to Battery C, field artillery, and are working hard to see who will be the first officer and win Mr. Borg's offer of a present. Their address is the above battery, 900 Front St., Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill.

On Sunday a list of 74 are ordered to report for transportation to the mobilization camp at Rockford. They will be banqueted at the Englewood club, 6321 Harvard Ave., tomorrow (Saturday) evening, at seven o'clock, and will be taken in automobiles to the depot Sunday morning, and will assemble at the clubhouse at seven o'clock. Persons having automobiles are invited to donate their use for this purpose and have them at the clubhouse promptly at that time.

This patriotic boys should be given a rousing sendoff and we hope to see all of Englewood unite in their reception and banquet.

Be Patriotic All the Time.

The coldest-blooded person will be inspired into saluting "Old Glory" as it passes, escorted by a regiment of stalwart fighting men, and the most phlegmatic will feel their pulses thrill at the singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner," but what is needed most now is patriotism all the time. It should be a steady diet. Defend our government at all times, stand for the honor of the nation and the flag, discountenance all strike talk or anything else that will embarrass or annoy the work of preparing for war. No matter what your sympathies were before the war, they should be with your country now, and it is your patriotic duty to do everything in your power by voice and hand to maintain the government, uphold the president and the departments at any sacrifice and at all times.

The worst slacker just now is the critical critic; the fellow who always knocks the government discourages real patriotism. Then we have the fellow that wants things to turn only for his personal interests; in fact, wants to make big money out of the patriotism of others and the present great needs of the nation. Don't be one of these; help out in every way, and when you feel like it give a rousing cheer for Uncle Sam and the flag, and if you feel lonely while doing it come in any old day and we will help you out.

Our Paper Purely Local.

We are often compelled to refuse space for interesting items of news of a general character, but we must reserve our space for purely local matter, or at least matter that concerns our home people. We cover a large territory, from 55th St. to the south city limits and from State St. west to Marquette Pk., hence we have little space for long-winded articles, no matter how important the subject or for items that may please certain people. We gladly give space to all local matter, personals or anything concerning our own home district or for the good of our people. All matter must be signed, not for publication, but that we may know the matter is genuine. We also ask that our writers be brief; we have no space to kill, and are compelled to condense all matter.

Next Sunday, September 23, will be Rally day at the Englewood Christian church Bible school, and a big day is in anticipation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Halverson of 6536 Normal Blvd. have returned from Fremont, Mich., where they spent the summer months rusticating.

R., but recently appointed chief of the new car service department connected with the national interstate commission, has moved from 6556 Lafayette Ave. to Washington. FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF ENGLEWOOD.

64th St. and Yale Ave.

Pastor, Rev. Willard H. Robinson, D. D.
6530 Lafayette Ave.

At the morning service at Englewood Presbyterian church, 10:30 a. m., Doctor Robinson will speak on "Getting Together." The present condition of Russia is immensely interesting as a political problem. We speculate and study in regard to the future organization of those millions of the newly-fledged republic. There will be many lessons to learn out of it all. Just what they are is not so very clear just now, but one, at least, emerges very visibly. It is the weakness of disunion. The Psalmist prayed, "Unite my heart." He, too, like Kerensky, had come to the kingdom when it was in a distracted state. He knew the value of political unity and being spiritually minded, the value of unity in that other and inner kingdom which he called his heart. A united heart is the secret of success along every line. But there are unities and unities. In the evening at 7:30 Doctor Robinson will speak on "Weather Probabilities." Christ Jesus indicted the men of his day for meteorological stupidity. The choir will be assisted by Miss Hazel Huntley, contralto.

TRIANGLE THEATRE

7219 Wentworth Ave.

Triangle theatre, 7219 Wentworth Ave., where the better photo-plays are shown first. Open daily 6:30 to 11 p. m. Sundays continuous 2 to 11 p. m.

Friday and Saturday, Sept. 21 and 22. No matinee Friday. Matinee Saturday, all seats 10 cents. Admission both evenings, dults, 15 cents; children, 10. Two patriotic days—the picture that battled its way through the courts for the right to be shown, Mary Pickford in "The Little American." In undoubtedly the most gripping and thrilling photodrama in which she has ever appeared, the nation's sweetheart, Mary Pickford, will be seen in her newest Artcraft picture, "The Little American." Readily conceded to be America's favorite daughter, "Our Mary" offers a most fitting characterization of the girl from the U. S. A. in a subject that has particular bearing on the great international complications. It contains many thrilling incidents, one of which is the torpedoing of a great ocean liner, while a ball is in progress, in which the beautifully gowned dancers are thrown into the water. It is the greatest work Miss Pickford has ever done, and is the first time since her appearance in Artcraft pictures that she is seen as a modern American girl in modern gowns. Friday we also show a Cub comedy, "Jerry's Trial," and on Saturday a Paramount-Bray cartoon.

Sunday, Sept. 23—Adults, 10 cents; children, 5 cents. Massive double program. Thanhouser-Pathe presents Gladys Hulette in "Pots and Pans Peggy." Charming Gladys Hulette in one of those winsome roles that have endeared her to countless thousands of admirers, makes an adorable little heroine as "Peggy." Also the Western hero, William S. Hart, in a thriller in two big acts, and a Mack Sennett Keystone comedy with Ford Sterling. Also a Burton Holmes Travelogue.

Try us, none other genuine, warranted kind that spells amusement and fun at every visit.

True Optimism.

"True optimism never closes its eyes to the formidable enemies of hope and happiness, but goes out armed and armored to meet them."

E. A. R. THEATRE

Friday, September 21—Rita Jovilet in "Law for Both." A vivid story which goes deeply into the question of the social and economic inequalities that finally resulted in the recent revolution in Russia. Also "Bungalowing," a Paramount comedy.

Saturday, September 22; matinee and evening—House Peters in "Heir of the Ages." House Peters has long been a great favorite of the photo-dramatic patrons. In "The Heir of the Ages" he is seen as a primitive man in the days of cave life and shows the human instincts of unselfishness and love. Later the situations which confronted him ages ago comes again when he is superintendent of a mine in a small western town. He falls in love with an ignorant little mountain girl only to lose her to his worthless brother in the East and then nearly loses his life in an effort to save theirs. How he finally wins the object of his heart is brought about in a manner which must be seen to be enjoyed. Little Mary McAlister in "The Yellow Umbrella," fourth of the very interesting complete stories "Do Children Count?" Also Charles Hoyt's uproarious comedy, "A Rag Baby."

Sunday, September 23; 2 to 11 p. m.—Franklyn Farnum in "The Car of Chance." A comedy-drama which reflects a romance of the jitney bus in exciting and stirring scenes leading up to the much-cherished happy ending. Burton Holmes' Travelogue. Also a hilarious Keystone comedy.

Monday, September 24—The photo-dramatic sensation of the decade. The play that astonished all New York, Lois Weber's powerful production, "Even as You and I." A drama of souls at bay. The greatest human interest story of the age in seven masterful reels. Also Pathe Latest News.

Tuesday, September 25—Lena Owens in "Madam Bo Peep." The adventures of a much-courted society favorite in the world of luxury and the outdoor realities of the frontier. "Soulmates," Triangle comedy, and Pathe News.

Wednesday, September 26—Fannie Ward in "Her Strange Wedding," adapted from the famous story of that name by George Middleton. Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Drew in "Lest We Forget;" also "Her Merry Mix-Up," Christie comedy.

Thursday and Friday, September 27 and 28; matinee and evening—Douglas Fairbanks in his newest offering, "Down to Earth," from the story by the versatile star himself presenting his own optimistic view of life in a riot of fun. Also other pictures.

LINDEN PHOTODROME

Friday, September 21—Margery Wilson, who appeared in "The Mother Instinct" and many other plays, will be seen in "A Mountain Deal." A tale of the Kentucky mountains during the moonshiners' reign. Others in the cast are Charles Gunn, Jack Richardson and many others. Will also show the Burton Holmes Travel Pictures and a Victor Moore comedy.

Saturday, September 22—R. A. Walsh's drama, "Betrayed," with Miriam Cooper. A thriller mixed with sobs and laughs. The story tells of a girl's dream of love. She begins by promising to marry one man and before the picture is ended she, well, see the rest, it's great; also the Animated Weekly and a corking good comedy with Eddie Lyons and Lee Moran.

Sunday, September 23—Douglas Fairbanks in "Double Trouble." A comedy that carries a message; also "A Clever Dummy." This is an all-star comedy day, so if you want to laugh don't miss it.

Monday and Tuesday, September 24 and 25—"Babbling Tongues." A remarkable photoplay in which an all-star cast of popular screen favorites, including James Morrison, Grace Valentine Arthur Donalson, Paul Capellani Louise Beaudet and others has been assembled. Presenting an entirely new view of the eternal triangle, neither a vampire nor a Magdalene story, it, because of its tensely and entirely novel situations has been accorded by critics exceptional praise for its particular excellence of artistry. Have babbling tongues ever injured you? Have babbling tongues ever marred your life? Do you believe the babbling tongues? See this super photoplay Monday and Tuesday, September 24 and 25.

Wednesday, September 26—Ethel Clayton in "The Woman Beneath." It tells of the way that a young society debutante marries a wealthy western mine owner. She later tells her husband that she does not love him, that she simply made a good match, but still later she demonstrates that she is possessed of true worth and she does this in a manner that charms and delights every one. To see it is to see a real treat. Also other pictures.

EMPRESS THEATRE

"How do they do it at the price?" is the constant query of Empress theatre patrons. Every week and twice every week the entire bill is changed, and it is difficult to chose between them as to which is the best bill. Manager Harry Mitchell is up in his business, and as soon as a real headliner is discovered Harry goes gunning for it, and it is very seldom indeed that he does not get it. See the bill this week, and you will know what we mean when we say what a good show it is.

Mr. Mitchell's long acquaintance with the big men on all circuits enables him to catch them going and coming, East or West, and many open dates are booked for the Empress that the dollar houses would be glad to book. Hereafter the old policy of matinees daily will rule, and the old price of ten cents, a thin dime, for admission is what none of the other managers can fathom and ask: "How does he manage it?" Well, that is what the proprietors pay for, his management, and he does put it over every week.

The Empress has been renovated and prettily decorated, every corner and cranny swept and cleaned, garnished with new paint and gilding so that it shines as bright as a soldier's medal. Don't make a mistake when you want an hour or two of real amusement. Hit the trail for the Empress and keep abreast of the times in all the best stage stuff. None of the old-time, small-town acts get on the stage here. The act must be good and new and unquestionable in every way. It is never a cheap show, only cheap prices.

The great beauty of the Empress is the wonderful ventilating system by which it may be easily cooled and heated always with pure fresh air, the same system, in fact, as is used in the best hospitals. Remember the Empress when you are booking your best girl for an engagement. It is sure to please her as well as yourself.

This is truly a special treat for our patrons. It is the best of all Fairbanks' plays. A laugh tonic bubbling over with Fairbanks' sunshine philosophy. For better comfort come early. Attend the matinees.

Special, one day only, Sunday, September 23; continuous 2 to 11 p. m.—A Surer De Luxe production with everybody's favorite, Harold Lockwood, in the eight-part tremendous play, "Under Handicap," from Jackson Gregory's famous novel. A story of New York and the West. A real Lockwood picture, full of bravery, determination and results—with the love of a fine girl to illuminate all; also Bud Fisher's new animated comedy of "Mutt and Jeff," and other pictures.

Monday, September 24; matinee and night—Paramount Pictures presents pretty, vivacious Vivian Martin, assisted by Tom Moore, in a beautiful and thrilling photoplay of love and sacrifice, "Little Miss Optimist," from the original story by Gardner Hunting. A cheerful play with a still more cheerful little star to dispel the glooms and lift you out of the doldrums. A story of romance, hardships and entanglements; with a background of beautiful California redwoods. Also the last chapter of "The Neglected Wife," Come and see the ending.

Tuesday, September 25; matinee and night—The distinguished star, Mme. Petrova, in her newest and greatest production, "To the Death." A wonder play of power and romance. Full of tense dramatic situations, wonderfully built and faultlessly portrayed by a cast of unusual ability in this story of a land where love and hate are strong, and where death is the one punishment for dishonor. Added attraction, little Mary McAllister, in "Where Is My Mother?" and Burton Holmes' Travel Pictures.

Wednesday and Thursday, September 26 and 27—Dustin Farnum in "The Spy." A timely American drama exposing the operations of foreign enemy secret police. Definition of a spy: The term "spy" is applied to those who mix with the enemy for the purpose of gathering information. It is essential to the character of a spy that he should be caught within the zone of operations of the hostile forces. Regulations respecting the laws and customs of war on land, promulgated by The Hague conference, provide that a spy cannot be punished without trial by a military tribunal, and then the penalty is invariably death. In Germany an imperial law enacted in 1893 metes out death to anyone convicted of being a spy. In the United States the verdict against a spy, in time of war is sent to the president or secretary of war for approval before execution. If a spy is caught in the act he is tried by drumhead court-martial, which verdict is approved by the commanding officer. If found guilty he is executed at once. Every man, woman and child should see this great picture.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Charles Robinson and his "Big Parisian Flirts Co." will be the attraction at the Englewood theatre week, September 23. There is no better traveling company touring the burlesque theatres throughout the country for entertainment and talent. This organization has for years stood the test and is in a class by itself. This season Mr. Robinson has a company of famous artists who stand alone in their particular lines. The cast is a large one and the members of the chorus are young and noted for beauty. Scenery and costumes are of the highest order and music that will charm you and make you hum from the start to the drop of the curtain. The farces are filled with historical situations, smart lines, satire of the topics of the day and drills that are new and sensational. Here are the entertainers: Charles Robinson, May Bernhart, Grace Lewis, Freda Lehr, Jerry Flemming, Al Raymo, Billy Kelly, Johnny Cook, Willie Mack and Tobasco and Peppe and a chorus of 25 dancing heart charmers. Mr. Robinson has been noted for his production ability and has spared no expense to make this season's show beyond criticism. There are all kinds of comical characters in the two farces and one is sure to enjoy the laughing situations mingled with catchy songs and artistic dances. There will be five good vaudeville acts, gorgeous scenery and costumes that will create talk by the gown wearers.

Everybody who has seen burlesque will remember Charles Robinson for his funny antics. For 25 years Robinson has played in every city where burlesque is seen. His long experience as a producer and originator has made him famous for his high-class entertainment. This season Mr. Robinson has gone entirely out of the way to satisfy the demands of the theatre-going people.

The management of the Englewood is sorry to announce that owing to the tremendous increase in operating expenses that after September 23 the first ten rows on main floor will be raised to $1 Sunday nights only, and after September 24 all 10-cent ladies' coupon tickets will be raised to 15 cents.

Get "Copy" In, in Time.

All "copy," advertisements and other, must be received at this office by Wednesday night at the latest, and preferably before noon of Wednesday if special position is desired. We go to press at seven o'clock Thursday morning and the forms are locked at that time. The rest of the day is consumed in press work and preparing the papers for the mails to reach the readers early Friday morning, and we cannot receive copy later than Wednesday under any circumstance. We are sorry each week to have to refuse good matter, but we must set a time, and it is as above.

Book of Esther.

The book of Esther is read through by the Jews in their synagogues at the feast of Purim. It has often been remarked as a peculiarity of the book that the name of God does not occur in it.

NATIONAL THEATRE

"Which One Shall I Marry?" An old and almost forgotten play, which was written over 400 years ago, and which was recently dug up by the English manager, Ben Greet, may be fairly held responsible for the existence of several successful plays, and the cultivation of a new taste by the public which is always ready to welcome anything new. This old play is "Everyman," which was written about 1500, and which has been of the so-called old morality or moral plays.

The people in the drama were named after the qualities they were intended to represent, and were distinguished from one another by the motives of their actions, and their object, while principally to amuse, was also to teach a moral lesson. The hero was shown with the good and evil spirits struggling to gain possession of his soul.

These ideas have been followed out with success in several very successful plays, "Everywoman," "Experience" and "Which One Shall I Marry?" which was recently produced under the management of Ed W. Rowland and Lorin J. Howard (Inc.).

In "Which One Shall I Marry?" we see an allegorical story carried out in the second act, and the heroine, Agnes, who is called the "poor girl," is attended on one side by "Good Advice" while she is also impelled by the "Avarice" excited by the rich man and "Love" for the poor man. To be effective and vital, drama must represent a struggle in the mind of the characters and the conflict for the social readjustments due to changing conditions, and for this, no theme can better be offered than the time in a woman's life when the choice is put up to her of a poor or a rich marriage, which is the pivot upon which "Which One Shall I Marry?" revolves.

"Which One Shall I Marry?" will have a presentation at the National week of September 23.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

Another big attraction at the Marlowe Hippodrome is the series of Mary Pickford's best plays which are billed for each Monday. These reels are entire shows of themselves, but we give them in conjunction with our regular vaudeville show, making the biggest combination for the money any house has ever offered. Always something new, something classy and something worth while at the Marlowe, no matter what day you select to attend.

These song contests will continue weekly on Tuesdays, and you will find all the attractions announced in the Englewood Times. Watch it's columns. For an added attraction and a sure winner for this week, beginning tomorrow, Saturday night, and continuing over Sunday, we will have the Ellis Royal Hawaiians, consisting of seven people, singers and instrumentalists direct from the Hawaiian islands, the best exponents of this delightful, novel class of music and soloists of a high order. On Monday that delightful little queen of the screen incomparable Mary Pickford, in one of her high-class real productions, will be seen in conjuction with our six big acts of vaudeville. Come and see Mary and the rest of the program; we are bound to entertain you.

The new policy at the Marlowe theatre is sure winner, and the manager is to be congratulated upon it as well as the patrons who enjoy the many new benefits of it. There will be a complete change of program every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening, and an extra number will be added to the Friday bill, to enable the manager to put on a better show.

CRISIS OF WOMAN'S LIFE

Change Safely Passed by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wagoner, Okla.—"I never get tired of praising Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because during Change of Life I was in bed two years and had two operations, but all the doctors and operations did me no good, and I would have been in my grave today had it not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which brought me out of it all right, so I am now well and do all my housework, besides working in my garden. Several of my neighbors have got well by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. VIOLA FINICAL, Wagoner, Okla.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness should be heeded by middle-aged women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has carried many women safely through the crisis.

A Bungle.

"The kaiser tries hard to please, but his efforts are very bungling."

The speaker was Seward Prosser, head of the New York Red Cross.

"The kaiser," he went on, "kicked out Bethmann Hollweg, who only wanted an honorable peace, and took on Doctor Michaelis, who demands a peace of victory. Yes, the kaiser tries to please his people—he even tries to please the allies—but he bungles like the bachelor.

"'Why, Miss Mamie,' said the bachelor, gallantly, at the seashore hop, 'your mother positively looks as young as you do.'

"'That's no compliment,' said Miss Mamie, with a toss of her head.

"'What I meant,' stammered the bachelor, more gallantly than ever, 'was that you—er—you look as young as your mother does.'"

Feed the Fighters! Win the War!!

Harvest the Crops—Save the Yields

On the battle fields of France and Flanders, the United States boys and the Canadian boys are fighting side by side to win for the World the freedom that Prussianism would destroy. While doing this they must be fed and every ounce of muscle that can be requisitioned must go into use to save this year's crop. A short harvest period requires the combined forces of the two countries in team work, such as the soldier boys in France and Flanders are demonstrating.

The Combined Fighters in France and Flanders and the Combined Harvesters in America WILL Bring the Allied Victory Nearer.

A reciprocal arrangement for the use of farm workers has been perfected between the Department of the Interior of Canada and the Departments of Labor and Agriculture of the United States, under which it is proposed to permit the harvesters that are now engaged in the wheat fields of Oklahoma, Kansas, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota and Wisconsin to move over into Canada, with the privilege of later returning to the United States, when the crops in the United States have been conserved, and help to save the enormous crops in Canada which by that time will be ready for harvesting.

HELP YOUR CANADIAN NEIGHBOURS WHEN YOUR OWN CROP IS HARVESTED!!!

Canada Wants 40,000 Harvest Hands to Take Care of Its 13,000,000 ACRE WHEAT FIELD.

One cent a mile railway fare from the International boundary line to destination and the same rate returning to the International Boundary.

An Identification Card issued at the boundary by a Canadian Immigration Officer will guarantee no trouble in returning to the United States.

AS SOON AS YOUR OWN HARVEST IS SAVED, move northward and assist your Canadian neighbour in harvesting his; in this way do your bit in helping "Win the War". NOTHING SAID ABOUT LION

Showman Had Forgotten to Mention a Highly Important Point When He Made His Offer.

The enterprising impresario of the mammoth circus offered $100 to any member of the audience who would enter the lion's cage. He made the invitation nightly, but no one seemed in a hurry to accept it until one evening a very sheepish looking individual rose and shouted:

"If you please, sir, I should like that hundred dollars!"

The audience was horror-stricken, but the impresario replied, with a contemptuous and rather incredulous smile:

"Oh! So you want to go into the lion's cage, do you?"

"Certainly!" said the man, starting to make his way from the audience.

"Very well, then; come along. I will open the door for you and you can walk in."

"Ah!" said the man, stepping forward with a knowing wink. "I'll go in, but you will have to take the lion out first. What you said was that you would give a hundred dollars to anyone going into the lion's cage."

A Loss.

"The coal barons and the steel barons promise to give the people a square deal during the war time, but I guess there's no danger of their going too far and robbing themselves in the people's behalf."

The speaker was Samuel Gompers.

"Yes," he went on, "there's no danger of their acting like the young lady at the shore, who said to her father:

"'Papa, I lost my heart on the moonlit beach last night, and accepted old Rake Harduppe. Poor Rake is no longer young, I know, but, as I said, I've lost my heart.'

"'Humph,' shouted her father, 'I think it's your head that you've lost.'"

Freedom Purchased.

"Buying Liberty bonds?"

"Yep; still paying alimony."—Yale Record.

Back Given Out?

Housework is too hard for a woman who is half sick, nervous and always tired. But it keeps piling up, and gives weak kidneys no time to recover. If your back is lame and achy and your kidneys irregular; if you have "blue spells," sick headaches, nervousness, dizziness and rheumatic pains, use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have done wonders for thousands of worn out women.

An Illinois Case

Mrs. Gust Michel, 672 Marion St., Waukegan, Ill., says: "I was laid up for a month at a time, unable to do any work at all. I couldn't lift the least weight, because of the sharp pains that went through my back and limbs. My kidneys, I knew, were in terrible shape because of the way they acted. I was often dizzy and could see spots before my eyes. It was no time before Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of the trouble and I was up doing my work again."

The Boy Prude.

Representative La Guardia of Michigan was praising the president's Flag day oration.

"How well he speaks out against the German militaristic autocracy!" said Mr. La Guardia. "Every true Democrat must speak out against that hydra. To use soft words about it is to be weak and silly and mistaken—like the little boy prude.

"A little boy prude, having eaten too many sour cherries, was taken ill in school, and began to groan and writhe.

"'What's the matter?' said the pretty teacher. 'What's the matter, Tommy?'

"The boy answered in an embarrassed voice:

"'I've got a terrible pain in my—my abdomen.'"

SHE SAW DANGER IN DELAY

Owing to Circumstances, Fair Maid Was Willing to Make Momentous Decision at Once.

"Harry," she began, in a sweet, timorous voice, "what's all this talk about gold and silver?"

Henry, who reads the papers, and was about as thoroughly ignorant on the subject as everybody else, plunged in bravely, but she stopped him.

"I don't want to know about that," she faltered, "but is gold getting so awful scarce?"

"Awful scarce!" echoed Henry, dismally.

"And is it all being taken away to pay for the war?"

"It is," said Henry.

"And if they continue to take it away, there won't be any left in this country by and by, and we'll have to use silver?"

"Yes," sighed Henry.

"Henry," she whispered, "I told you I would give you my decision in the summer—but I repent. It—it is 'Y—yes.' Henry, don't—don't you think," she continued, after a moment's silence, "that it would be well to get the ring now, before all the gold is taken away?"—London Answers.

Wastefulness.

Some families take pride in serving lavish and overbountiful meals and overgenerous service of food. This leads inevitably to waste of food on the table and is a temptation to overeating, which often impairs health and efficiency.

How thoroughly some people enjoy advertising the few virtues they may possess!

No, Cordelia, it isn't the proper caper to eat prunes with a pruning knife.

Italian Officer Claimed Bullet That Shot Him and Got It—Swiss Resented Loss of Thirst.

An Italian officer who was wounded in the Trentino has just brought an action to obtain a decision as to the rightful ownership of a bullet extracted from his body. Both doctor and nurse claimed it, but the officer contended that it was legally his. The judge gave the decision in the officer's favor by a novel line of argument.

He found that the projectile, once discharged from the gun, ceased both to belong to the man who fired it and the country which intrusted it to him. It thus became, while on its way to its billet, a res nullus, which any finder is entitled to pick up and keep. The officer found it in his body. It was only brought to light by the surgeon, assisted by the nurse. Hence the officer was entitled to keep it. Which sounds a good deal like much ado about nothing.

Some weeks ago an abbe left a French village to take up the incumbency of another, and the mayor and his late flock lit a bonfire in the road to speed their departing parson, making merry at his expense and showing unmistakably the joy they felt at seeing his back. Naturally the abbe thought himself insulted and brought an action for damages, but as he could not show any the case was dismissed.

A very stout man recently bought a third-class ticket at a roadside station in England, and found that he could not get into a third-class compartment. So he went into a first, the doors of which are wider, refusing to pay the excess. He was sued for the balance and had to pay both that and the costs, the court holding that this could not be his first offense, and, knowing that he could not squeeze through the door of a third, he ought to have booked first without more ado.

After telling a barber to trim his beard, a farmer fell asleep in the chair. He was awakened by the application of a wet towel to his face, and, looking in the glass, was not sure whether the barber had awakened him or some other fellow.

He had gone to sleep with a beard two feet long and woke up clean shaved. His whiskers, of which he was very proud, had all gone. He sued the barber for $1,000 and got $100.

A certain inhabitant of Switzerland had a most splendid thirst, which he plied daily with stimulants. His sister secretly put a drink cure into his potations, which had the magical effect of curing him of his craving, and rendering drink obnoxious. So angry was he when he learned the truth that he sued his sister for $5,000 for the loss of his thirst!

Disappointed Horse.

That a horse, in spite of his "horse sense," can be pitifully deceived by appearances was demonstrated in a telling manner. A young woman was waiting patiently for a car going east, when a horse and wagon owned by a huckster stopped almost before her.

The horse, a friendly looking animal, gradually edged up to the curb near the young woman, who smiled graciously and patted him on the nose. As the car approached she walked slowly toward the track and was waiting for the car door to open when the friendly animal slipped up behind her, and with a sudden plunge grasped the bunch of green leaves from her new hat.

After a brief tussle with hat pins and yellow curls, the horse managed to wrest the hat from the young woman and marched off chewing what he evidently thought a meal of fine green. The horse chewed the milliner's painted leaves, and finding them not to his taste dropped the hat, which was returned to its owner.—Milwaukee Journal.

Babies Healthier Nowadays.

The death rate among babies in the larger American cities has been reduced 11 per cent since 1910, according to the infant mortality survey just completed by the New York milk committee. This reduction has been made among cities of 100,000 population and over.

The smaller cities have not done so well. The reduction in cities between 50,000 and 100,000 population is only 2 per cent, while those under 50,000 show an increase of 5 per cent. The general reduction is 9 per cent. The survey covers 150 of the largest cities in the United States since 1906. The marked decrease in infant deaths did not begin until 1910, when organized infant welfare work became general.

Origin of Dollar Sign.

Although suggestions have been made that the symbol of the dollar sign represents the Pillars of Hercules or the caduceus of Mercury, it seems less far fetched to regard it as a pistograph of the Spanish arms to be found on all pieces of eight. The list of such money symbols is remarkably small as compared with those for weights and measures. Some years ago the United States made the first modern addition to money symbols, a distinguishing mark for its Philippine dollar. This may be described as a black letter minuscule p (for peso) with two bars scored across its stem.

To Be of Real Assistance.

Spinoza's test in the Scriptures of Humanity: He who desires to assist other people will avoid referring to the voices of men and will take care only sparingly to speak of human impotence, while he will talk largely of human virtue or power and of the way by which it may be made perfect, so that men being moved, not by fear or aversion but by the effect of joy, may endeavor as much as they can to live under the rule of reason.

Too Many There.

Major general (addressing the men, before practicing an attack behind the lines)—I want you to understand that there is a difference between a rehearsal and the real thing. Sergeant Major—The absence of the general, sir.

A Discovery.

"Does he claim exemption from the draft?"

"Yes. He has just made the startling discovery that his wife and children are absolutely dependent on the money he has been spending in the saloons."

WOMEN! IT IS MAGIC! LIFT OUT ANY CORN

Apply a few drops then lift corns or calluses off with fingers—no pain.

Just think! You can lift off any corn or callus without pain or soreness.

A Cincinnati man discovered this ether compound and named it freezone. Any druggist will sell a tiny bottle of freezone, like here shown, for very little cost. You apply a few drops directly upon a tender corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can lift it right off.

Freezone is wonderful. It dries instantly. It doesn't eat away the corn or callus, but shrivels it up without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Hard, soft or corns between the toes, as well as painful calluses, lift right off. There is no pain before or afterwards. If your druggist hasn't freezone, tell him to order a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

Canadian Farmers Profit From Wheat

The war's devastation of European crops has caused an unusual demand for grain from the American Continent. The people of the world must be fed and wheat near $2 a bushel offers great profits to the farmer. Canada's invitation is therefore especially attractive. She wants settlers to make money and happy, prosperous homes for themselves by helping her raise immense wheat crops.

You can get a Homestead of 160 acres FREE and other lands at remarkably low prices. During many years Canadian wheat fields have averaged 20 bushels to the acre many yields as high as 45 bushels to the acre. Wonderful crops also of Oats, Barley and Flax.

Mixed farming as profitable an industry as grain raising. The excellent grasses full of nutrition are the only food required for beef or dairy purposes. Good schools, churches, markets convenient, climate excellent.

There is an extra demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for the war. The Government is urging farmers to put extra acreage into grain. Write for literature and particulars as to reduced railway rates to Supt. of Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, or

Went to Extremes.

A young man walking through a foreign quarter of New York stopped with an amused smile in front of a small eating place, on the window of which was painted in whitewash "Lam stew."

The proprietor from the doorway, asked what the joke was and the young fellow explained about the missing "b" in "lamb" and was thanked for the correction.

The next day, passing the same restaurant, he found that while the bill of fare had changed, the spelling lesson had not been forgotten. The proprietor was now offering "Clamb chowder."

"But you got very badly knocked about," retorted the other.

"Yes, Oi know that," cried Mike, enthusiastically; "but, begorra, it was the first fight I was ever in that the police didn't stop."

The Sentry.

Melvin Lestutter, formerly a reporter on a Columbus newspaper, is now in the United States marines somewhere off the coast of South Carolina. He sent back the story of a green sentry who was on duty a few nights ago.

Three persons appeared in the darkness and in true military style the sentry demanded:

"Halt! Who goes there?"

"Captain, wife and child," was the answer of the officer the sentry had stopped.

"Advance, captain, to be recognized," commanded the sentry. "Mark time, wife and child."—Indianapolis News.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE and NONSENSE

An Englewood lady received the following from a soldier in the trenches "somewhere in France" who received a pair of sox she had knit for the Red Cross:

Thank you, kind lady, the socks are some fit,
I used one for a helmet, and one for a mitt.
Hope to meet you some day, when I've done my bit,
But where in thunder did you learn to knit?

The ladies' hats are much smaller this year. Don't let that console you that the prices are in proportion.

Some folks object to the soldier boys "strutting." Well, why shouldn't they strut? Every U. S. soldier should be proud, and to be proud properly one must strut. I feel happier every time I meet a clean-cut soldier or sailor boy, and I admire his manly strut.

If we could just have the I. W. W. and other agitators hold their convention on a big boat and send it out in the path of an active U-boat, it would settle the whole matter.

When General Casey, commander at Fort Sheridan, announced that two days' leave of absence would be granted any of the soldiers of Jewish faith who wished to celebrate the Jewish New Year, two very solemn-faced sergeants applied and being asked their names, calmly announced themselves as "Patrick O'Reilly" and "Michael O'Shaugnanessey." They should have been put on parade duty at the synagogue.

"What are you going to make of your son Charley?" "Well," replied Charley's father, "I made a doctor of Bob, a lawyer of Ralph and a minister of Bert, and Joe is a literary man. I think I'll make a laboring man of Charley. I want one of them to have a little money."

Casey's experience at a Michigan resort hotel last month was exciting. The sand flies by day and mosquitoes by night nearly mashed him, and upon retiring he was kept awake by bedbugs. After enduring them for some time he rang the call bell and asked for the landlord and demanded the hotel register, saying, "Oi wants to see et thim bugs do be registered fer this room an' et they do be. Oi'll go to anither wan boot Oi'll be damned ef we kin shape in the same bed et Oi have to pay fer it."

It was in an "owel west" drug store and the customer asked for a pound of sulphur which the man with the wise look got for him. "How much?" asked the customer. "Twenty-five cents," said the man. "Twenty-five cents?" queried the customer, "why I can get a pound of sulphur at the Boston store any old day for 24 cents." "Is that so?" snapped the indignant pill roller. "Well, if you'll just go a bit farther and go to hades, you'll get it for nothing." And then both got mad.

The haughty but somewhat passe beauty drew a deep breath. "That rich Mr. Yancey is coming tonight, mother." "Yes, my dear. And do you think he will propose?" The girl nodded. "Yes, mother, I don't intend to wait any longer. He must propose before he leaves the house." "But he's so timid, my dear. He might propose and then run away." "He won't run far, mother. I'm prepared for all that. Our cozy parlor is waiting for him, the grate fire is alluring, the lights are turned low, the easiest chair waits by the tender and the dictaphone is in the coal scuttle! Hark, mother, there's the bell. Let him in, please." And she looked at herself in the mirror over the mantel and smiled.

The Englewood Sunday Evening Club.

The fourth season of the Englewood Sunday Evening club, which we know as the season of 1917-18, will open in the auditorium of the Englewood Presbyterian church, corner of Yale Ave. and West 64th St., Sunday evening, October 7, at 7:30 o'clock. The program for the entire season is well-nigh completed. It has been the aim of the directors of the club to bring to Englewood men and women of national and international reputation; also it has been their aim to make each season's program more delightful and inspiring than the preceding years afforded.

It is therefore with considerable pride that we announce that among the speakers for this season we have Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth, Mr. Fred B. Smith, the Hon. Frederick Howe, Dr. Charles Stelzle, Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Prof. Henry C. Adriani, Dr. Charles F. Aked, Dr. Arthur Walwyn Evans, Dr. Frederick F. Shannon and Prof. E. A. Steiner.

The program for the month of October is as follows: October 7, Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth of the Volunteers of America perhaps better known as "the little mother of the prisons." October 14, the Hon. Herbert S. Bigelow of Cincinnati, who was so cordially welcomed on our platform last year; October 21, Mr. Fred B. Smith of New York city a man of international fame and power. This is the third time Mr. Smith has appeared before the Englewood Sunday Evening club and he is a man of whom we cannot possibly tire. On October 28 Lieut. Robert Bowman of the American field service in France who has had thrilling experiences at the front, will bring us a message, together with pictures by the aid of the stereopticon, revealing fundamental facts concerning the great European conflict.

We trust that this October program serves in the matter of creating an appetite for the full season's program, which we are glad to say is abundantly worthwhile throughout.

One of the outstanding features of the club's work has been the securing, through the co-operation of Mr. Glenwood Preble, of some of the finest musical talent to be found in the city of Chicago and its environment. Among the soloists to appear before the club this season are: Sopranos, Miss Margery Maxwell, Miss Hazel Silver and Miss Myrtle Moses; contraltos, Miss Mary Welch, Mrs. Pornelia Gale, Mrs. Edna Swanson Ver Haar; tenors, Arthur Kratt, Thomas McGranahan, Arthur Platz; bassos, Frank Johnson, Herbert Gould and Harold Dale Sauer.

Other information will be presented from time to time in these columns concerning the plans and work of this community organization.

Infantile Paralysis.

Will be the subject of a paper and moving pictures at the September meeting of the Chicago Public Health association held at Parker practice school auditorium on Thursday, September 27 at 8 p. m.

The latest information on this subject will be given and questions may be asked. Admission free.

Baby of Englewood Parents Takes State Fair Prize.

The following excerpt is from Sunday's Illinois State Register of Springfield, Ill.:

"A perfect girl was examined yesterday. Baby 'Patsy' Hartman of 221 East Jackson St. had a score of 99½. Her parents are Chicago people, Mr. Hartman being employed here at present in the state utilities commission office. Baby 'Patsy' was born in St. John's hospital five months ago. Her extreme youth makes her ineligible for any of the competitions, but she is the highest scoring baby that was examined. Mrs. Lowden was so impressed with the baby that she started a savings account for her with a $10 bill."

Mr. and Mrs. Hartman formerly resided at 6521 Yale Ave. Mrs. Hartman was Miss Kittie Sullivan, an Englewood girl all her life and formerly of the Times staff.

The contest was held by the state welfare bureau at the state fair and attracted children from all parts of the state.

After the War Is Over.

This may be a lot premature, but the time will surely come when the sword shall be beaten into plow-shares, whatever they are, and the boys shall crawl out of the trenches, and the sailor boy sail home again, and this horrible frenzy of killing stopped. Then will come the readjustment, and it will not only be confined to nations, but in the family. In the last four years we have grown more extravagant than ever, we have found money easier, and in many cases have adapted ourselves to a more expensive life than we could possibly lead in ordinary times. Wages that have been greatly increased must come down; salaries in the thousands will drop, profits and dividends will melt away until the normal conditions will exist, and we will be compelled to return to the old life. The point is, are we not forming many habits of extravagance it will be difficult to overcome? Are we not finding the former luxuries necessities, and are we planning how to do without them when the incomes will not permit them? Some habits are worse than war, and we must beware that we do not form them.

Hamilton Park Woman's Club.

The Hamilton Park Woman's club will begin the year with an open meeting in the assembly hall at Hamilton Park on the evening of Tuesday, October 2.

The officers of the club are: President, Mrs. Clarence Rainwater; first vice president, Mrs. A. G. Anderson; second vice president, Mrs. C. B. Coleman; recording secretary, Mrs. H. D. Smith; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. S. Jenson; assistant corresponding secretary, Mrs. Walter Baker; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Shepherd; chairman of program committee, Mrs. H. C. Furneaux; department chairmen—Music, Mrs. Ray Kortz; art and literature, Mrs. G. H. Nash; civic and legislative, Mrs. L. C. Reid; education (home economics), Mrs. J. S. Steele; Mrs. O. A. Jackson chairman publicity committee.

Community Club of Englewood.

The Red Cross committee of the club wishes to announce that the sewing and knitting for the boys of the navy, which has been going on about all summer, is to be continued, and will be one of the activities to be kept alive during the winter and until the war is over. These meetings are held each Tuesday at the Englewood Baptist church house, and the members of the club and others wishing to do their "bit" for our boys are urgently requested to come. Incidentally gardening and canning ideas are "swapped," and a good time generally is enjoyed while the needles fly and the machines hum.

As funds for yarn and other materials are running low again, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Read of 507 W. 62nd St. have generously offered to give an entertainment in the Lewis-Champlin assembly hall on Saturday evening, October 6, for the purpose of raising the money that we must have to continue this work. What a fine opportunity to enjoy the splendid and well-known talent of these good friends and neighbors and at the same time help the cause which appeals as strongly to all patriotic Americans.

Watch for the posters and remember the date.

The first regular fall meeting of the club will be held as usual at the Hiram Kelly branch library, 62nd and Normal boulevard, October 9, at 2 p. m., Mrs. Mann, the new president, presiding.

Mrs. Edw. Taylor, from the Chicago Navy league headquarters, will tell us of the work the league has done, is doing and must do, and Mrs. E. C. Griffith, our tireless chairman and coworker, will give an account of the summer's work; and Mrs. John H. Lyle has kindly consented to be the reader for the day. With such a fine program no club member or neighbor whom we hope is a prospective club member, can afford to stay away on October 9.

Bring your friends.

Another "Tag Day."

The Protestant Woman's National association will have a Tag day September 26 for the benefit of their "home" for dependent children at 439 S. Normal Pkwy. There is need for more help in a financial way for the little ones, who are not able to take care of themselves. While we are helping the children of other countries we must not forget our own. Any ladies who are willing to help on Tag day please call up Mrs. C. P. Rabe, 5003 Ashland Ave., Yards 5369, who is chairman of Tag day.

The Second Stage.

"Sold your car yet?" "No," replied the melancholy motorist. "I passed that stage long ago." "Indeed." "Yes, I'm trying to give it away now."

ENGLEWOOD HAPPENINGS

The fall moving day, October 1, will see many changes. Send us your changed address at once.

On account of an unusual rush of local news matter this week our serial story will be omitted.

Mr. Carl Wilhelm returned to his school duties at Eureka college, Eureka, Ill., this week, after his summer vacation spent here with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. William O. Budd, 326 64th St., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alice Catherine, to Lee Johnston Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. David P. Perry, 3700 Grand Boul.

The thirty-second anniversary of the church and the eighteenth anniversary of the minister of the Englewoood Christian church was celebrated Tuesday, the 18th, by an appropriate program prepared by the committee in charge. It was a gala event and will be long remembered.

Mrs. Jeanne McKnight of Denver, Colo., who was called here by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Armitage, returned to Denver Thursday, accompanied by her mother. They were the guests while here of Mrs. Armitage's brother, Col. John G. Munns of 246 60th St.

The plasterers and glaziers have been at work this week on the new Cunningham building at Englewood Ave. and Normal Blvd., and a better idea is given of the interior formations of the chapel, stores and offices. The chapel will be finished in rough granite surface, tinted walls and ceilings, with very chaste trimming to harmonize with the general effect. The store rooms and offices are the last word in conveniences and Mr. Tyner, the agent, at 344 63d St., has many applicants for them.
